Greetings from our President Joanne Mills

We are all feeling a change in the air, the light, the temperature and hopefully, the restrictions. To me, it means my favorite color, green.

Seafoam, celadon, moss, sage and grass. How many can you name? How many can you see?

In cabbages, lettuce and parsley; pine trees and hemlock; leaves and lichen; malachite and jade; verdigris, veridian, sap and mint. All beautiful, full of fertility and life. Some on our plates, all in our palettes waiting to be enjoyed.

Welcome spring and happy painting adventures to you all!

“In Memoriam”

It is with sadness that we announce the passing of Andree Stewart. She was a long-standing member of the Guild and will be remembered for her happy disposition, sweet smile, and her beautiful paintings. Our condolences to her husband, Arthur and her sons Michael and Lawrence. See a tribute to her on page 2 which was written by Maya Jacob, Beverly Cook and Sheila Falco.

Also, Beth Aaronson’s mother, Ruth Robinson Saltzman passed away on March 21st.

Beverly Cook suffered a broken hip while cross country skiing. She has had surgery and is hopefully on the road to recovery.

“Art In Bloom”

The show opens on April 12th. A formal invitation to view the virtual show will be provided a week before. It will be open on the LAG website.

Dear friend and member Andree Stewart passed on February 26, 2021. Loving wife of Arthur and mother of sons, Michael and Lawrence. In life, “gracious is marked by kindness and courtesy, characterized by charm, good taste, generosity of spirit and graceful” and so much more. Andree painted that definition in her life and artworks. The subject women she painted reflected the very essence of her grace and charm, while her landscapes relayed a steely quiet and calm so typical of her personality. She was a dedicated wife, mother, nurse, artist, accomplished seamstress and a deaconess at her church. Many roles in her life were marked by a trait that streamed through all...her caring, quiet spirit. As a long-time member of the Guild, she participated in several art shows, including Art In Bloom. She received several ribbons and donated a painting into our permanent collection.
