Greetings from our President Joanne Mills

In so many ways, it's a season of change. Our world is becoming rich in colorful plants and wonderful spring air and, with some luck, much lessening of COVID restrictions. With this comes the change in the Guild with the new Board taking their place the first of June with lots of new people, plans and a new way of being. An Executive group is replacing the Vice President's chair. I wish them well and look forward to their ideas and perspectives with a renewed effort to become more visible and effective in the community. The other change is, of course, my saying goodbye as President although I will remain on the Board.

I am so grateful to those of you I've gotten to know; the friends I've made and everything I've learned about art and painting. You are a wonderful community of committed, creative people and I very much enjoyed the role I played. My hat's off to you and I wish you the greatest success.

My very best wishes, Joanne.

ARTIST STATEMENTS:

At age 20, Dan came to the US as an engineering student. He had a French education and a love of the arts. He also had a small portrait and an unfinished rolled canvas. He painted as a hobby, painting in spurts while busy with a demanding career and raising a family. Although he admired the great painters of the Renaissance and the Dutch and Spanish Masters, the style of the Impressionists attracted him the most. Over time, he loved to discover new techniques, styles and media which he did with abandon. After retiring, he joined the Lynnfield Art Guild and became prolific.

Bill is a local watercolor artist who has exhibited throughout the area. He is inspired by the natural beauty of New England and by his travels. He has taught painting at both the Lynn and Lynnfield Senior Centers and always says he learned a lot more from the students than they've learned from him.
