Greetings from our President

Dan Abenaim

Cause and effect?

I really enjoyed the October demo. Adam Adkison, a young local artist, painted a sunflower, oil on canvas, with spectacular results. He was fast and super effective. I learned a lot! But I noticed that we had about 22 members in attendance and we had many more when our demos were at the senior center. It could not be because of the quality of the artists because Mary Lynch has organized a great program, so I thought it might be a consequence of technology. In person there was no do over, but with zoom we tape the demo and put it on the website so that you can watch at your convenience just like TV and DVRs. So, what do you think? Should we continue to zoom and record or should we get back to in-person demos only? Let us know!

As you know, this past year we have stepped up our activities with more and longer events. That, in turn, has stressed our capabilities and overwhelmed the volunteers who make things happen. It is not sustainable without changes! We would rather not do less so we are going to investigate how much help we might get from technology. For instance, can we buy an integrated membership management system to streamline and simplify the hard work we go through to enable the fun we have? I'll be leading a small team to evaluate the possibilities and if you have any recommendations, or if you want to help with the evaluation, please let me know.

In the meantime, we continue to do more. The Fall Show next weekend, will last Saturday and Sunday and will focus on Art. We have a goal to display 100 paintings and photographs, a 100-piece tiny art gallery and 50 bin-art pieces. On the Commons the Friends of the Library will sell Art books. We also will offer our always popular bake sale and raffle. As usual, we owe huge thanks to the show committee: Joyce, Hedy, Jane, Bill and Bill, Beverly, Maya, Beth, Ann, Sheila and all the other volunteers who make the event possible. So, tell your friends and families, come enjoy the show and don't forget to attend the opening reception on Friday evening.

Have a wonderful Holiday Season

Sheila Falco has a display at the Stoneham Library for the month of November, 2022.

Abstract Watercolor, Gouache on Panel

Presented by
YoAhn Han

Thursday, November 17, 2022

7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

(via ZOOM)

YoAhn Han is a Korean painter based in Boston whose work is a visual dialogue between suppression and desire, a duality which speaks to both his experience of cerebral arteriovenous malformation and to his bifurcated cultural identity.

He received his MFA 2D at Massachusetts College of Art and Design, and obtained a Bachelors of Fine Art from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago (SAIC). YoAhn's work has been shown internationally in the United States, South Korea, and the Netherlands. Recent solo shows include "Botanical Rhapsody" at Chase Young Gallery in Boston, "Metamorphic Desire" at Essex Art center, "My Princess, Bari" at ARTMORA Gallery in New York, "Alluring Confinement" at the Artlery 160 in Boston, and Enchanting Box in Seoul, Korea. His work has also been exhibited in several group shows including "Summer Palette" at Chase Young Gallery in Boston, Seventh Juried Exhibition at Prince Street Gallery in New York, ART BLOSSOM Exhibition at ARTMORA NJ, and Sanctuary at Distillery Gallery in Boston.

YoAhn has also participated in the annual MassArt Auctions and the 2016 Busan international Art fair.
