Artist's Statement: "My real passion is to capture the beauty of our landscape through the eye of my camera. A native New Englander, my inspiration primarily comes from photographing New England landscapes but also includes images from our national parks and Europe. I try to capture the uniqueness each season brings along with the magic light that exists. I love capturing the beauty of the coastline. I particularly enjoy photographing during the golden hours of sunrise and sunset, and I'm also drawn to images where nature and man-made elements meet. Photography for me is all about capturing a moment in time which may never be repeated. I spend a good amount of time driving on back roads or hiking to secluded places to capture the beauty of nature. I also spend considerable time editing my images to replicate what I saw."

John's photographs have been published in the Photographer's Forum Magazine, Cape Ann Magazine, Discover Gloucester, and the Cape Ann Guide. He was recently awarded the Juror's Choice award in photography at the Rockport Art Association annual National exhibition for his "Buoys in Snow" photo. He is also a juried member of Gallery 53 on Rocky Neck, Rockport Art Association, and Newburyport Art Association where his photography can be viewed along with the Cape Ann Coffee and Oliver's Restaurant in Gloucester, Arts Abound in Magnolia, and the Depot Diner in Beverly.

Membership in the Lynnfield Art Guild is open to artisans, photographers and artists of all levels, with student, supporting and family memberships available. Save The Date for the Guild's Fall Art Show and Sale, which will take place on November 4 from 10 – 4 in the Meeting House.
