

The Lynnfield Art Guild Presents a Woodcut and Printmaking Demo by Kate Hanlon on November 16th

The Lynnfield Art Guild (LAG) is presenting a Woodcut/Printmaking Demonstration by Kate Hanlon, Thursday, November 16, 2023, at 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. via Zoom. You can find her whimsical art and the classes Kate offers at: katehanlon.com

Kate Hanlon is a multi-disciplinary artist and educator. She received her BFA with a concentration in printmaking from University of Massachusetts, Amherst. Hanlon has been represented by Paramour Fine Arts in Franklin, MI since 2014. Her work has been featured in dozens of exhibitions, including at Storefront Art Projects in Watertown, MA, Providence Art Club in Providence, RI, Francesca Anderson Gallery in Lexington, MA, The Old Print Shop in NYC, and Boston Athenaeum in Boston MA. Hanlon is well known for her printmaking and drawing classes and workshops, and specializes in both technical skills, and building muscles for experimentation and exploration.

Kate says: "I first became acquainted with white line woodcuts as a university printmaking student, while waitressing in Provincetown during the summers of 1979-1980. I was intrigued by their luminous colors, simplified yet sophisticated designs, and low-tech approach. There were no classes in the medium at that time, so I taught myself to print by trial and error, reading everything I could find about the early Provincetown printers."

This demonstration is open to all members via invitation. Prospective members are encouraged to join the Guild at www.lynnfieldarts.org to take advantage of this and upcoming special artistic opportunities, including free attendance at all live and virtual demonstrations and the ability to display art, network with other artists and show pieces in our popular exhibits.

Membership in the Lynnfield Art Guild is open to artisans, photographers and artists of all levels, with student, supporting and family memberships available.
